

Liberal Arts Seen from the Perspective of the Coronavirus Crisis

2020 will be remembered as the year of COVID-19. How have the faculty at ICU responded to the pandemic? Please join us for five special lunchtime lectures where faculty members will explore how they have been thinking about the Liberal Arts during the time of the novel coronavirus.

Prof. Robert Eskildsen, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, invites faculty members from various departments at ICU to talk about their efforts on Zoom Webinars.

Please register using the URL below to participate in the Webinars! You will receive a Zoom ID number after you complete your registration, and you can use the same ID number to participate in any of the sessions.

URL: https://icu.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_blqtUu1nTHCGv3ewzhOAlg

2021

- January 21 (Thu) 12:45–13:30 “Bringing the Liberal Arts Online through Collaborative Global Learning Communities” (IN ENGLISH)
Prof. Insung JUNG Education Major
- January 28 (Thu) 12:45–13:30 “Songs Going Viral: Music and Liberal Arts Education in Times of Pandemic” (IN ENGLISH)
Prof. Matthew GILLAN Music Major
- February 4 (Thu) 12:45–13:30 “From Smallpox Prints to Preventive Medicine: the History of Pandemics and the Effort of ICU Students” (IN JAPANESE)
Prof. Kei NASU and Prof. Hideaki KIKUCHI History Major
- February 18 (Thu) 12:45–13:30 “Environmental Studies: Learning and Student Engagement That Did Not Stop During the Corona Crisis” (IN JAPANESE)
Prof. Tatsuo NUNOSHIBA Biology Major
- February 25 (Thu) 12:45–13:30 “The Coronavirus Crisis and the ‘New Normal’ in Liberal Arts Education” (IN JAPANESE)
A Conversation with President Shoichiro IWAKIRI

